MEXICAN MAILBOX

The original hardwood oriface of this very unusual 1820 mailbox may be seen today in the Postal Museum of Mexico City. No record of the lady was mentioned.

ALL ABOUT MOUNTAIN LAKE

Reliable Ralph Reynolds sent this very interesting informative letter about the Mountain Lake, NY strike on the post card submitted in the last issue under "HELP".

I read your cry for "HELP" in this last edition of the Empire State Postal History Society Bulletin which cam in todays mail.

Probably, I can give you as much information as any one regarding the Mountain Lake cancellation. This was a private postmark that was applied to mail to be sent from that resort.

Mountain Lake was a very popular vacation and resort area shortly after the turn of the century. There was an electric railway which took people back and forth up the mountain to the small lake on the top of Bleeker Mountain about five miles from the heart of Gloversville. There was a hotel which was popular before it burned. Also, there was a pavilion for dancing, as well as private cottages on this cool mountain lake. Also, a small steamboat took passengers for rides.

When it was popular, a "Mother" Caron ran a store there in the summer months and I believe sold some type of food for those who wanted to eat there.

It was at this store that the mail was cancelled, then usually taken to Gloverville to be mailed at the post office. This explains the double cancellation.

However, I have an example of Mountain Lake Cancel 8/28/10 Bleeker 8/29/10; also Mountain Lake 8/30/10 Gloversville 8/31/10; and Mountain Lake 8/31/10 Johnstown 8/31/10. It is interesting to see that the mail was taken to three different post offices to make the private postmark legal all within a three day period of time. I have a number of examples of this private postmark between the years 1908 and 1915. However, all but above mentioned were mailed in Gloversville, so this was apparently the favorite spot.

A number of people were filled in the Mountain Lake wreck on the railroad and that along with the loss of the hotel, the advent of the auto for general use led to the lack of popularity of this resort, although there are many private cottages still on this pretty little lake.

Somewhere, I have a clipping about Mother Caron when she passed away some years ago. Harry Kutcher (possibly not spelled correctly) now deceased said he and another young boy cancelled the private post mark before it was taken to Gloversville for mailing.

There are a number of picture post cards of this lake, hotel, railway and pavilion that were printed during the post card era.

I do not have a single letter that has the Mountain Lake postmark - they are all post cards. I have an illustrated cover of the Mountain Lake Hotel, but unfortunately it has a Gloversville postmark only.

Sincerely - Ralph Reynolds

THOUGHTS & THINGS

This issue was a little late too...the next one has to be on time as I think three times in a row would make me out of a job!

We are always looking for members to contribute something for the Bulletin...even just a little short thing you cut out of some other publication that you think our readers might appreciate would be very welcome along with those longer articles that we all like so well. Don't be shy... if you need help just write!

I hope most of you are patronizing our faithful advertiser, Arnie Leiter from Uncle Sam Stamp & Coin Co. Even tho he has raised most of his nickel covers to a dime, he can't keep paying for his ad on what I buy from him so please contact him or better yet drop into his store. In addition to being a pretty nice guy he DOES have quite a few things for most collectors. (But don't tell him I said so!)

Keep up the letters to the editor...they are fun to get and I hope others will like to read them too.

J

Letters to the Editor

A personal thank you to members Ralph Reynolds and Raymond Lewis for replies to my "Help asked on the Mt Lake p.c." which was pictured in Dec edition. That edition had not been in my hands a week when Ralph's long informative reply reached me via the editor, and followed up by more information from Ray. So to both Gloversville gentlemen a "tip of the Society hat" to you.

Arnie Leiter

As a new member of ESPHS I would.....

I am a charter member of the Long Island PHS which formed in mid 1980. We have 41 paid members for calendar 1982. I enjoy very much the contacts and friends that I am able to make through the club. I certainly hope that I will make many more through the ESPHS.

What I most enjoy about the hobby is the research and writing about local p h and L I history in general. My other collecting interests are photographia, postcards (I have over 1400 from Huntington Township where I live), L I books, maps, advertising, and post office related items.

I like the ESPHS newsletter very much. The article about Craig, NY post office by George Bernadt was very interesting. I guess I am like George, collecting p h is not complete until you dig out the history behind the p o and the markings. Covers on a blank page or plastic album page is no fun.

Keep up the good work. I know it's very satisfying personally. Regards,

Fred Rodriguez

BINGHAMTON POSTOFFICE

From "BINGHAMTON AND BROOME COUNTY, NEW YORK, A HISTORY" by William F Seward, 1924

The Binghamton Post Office - In the early days of Binghamton, mail was received here only once in two weeks. The first postal route established was that from Catskill to Elmira, passing through Binghamton at intervals of a fortnight. For a number of years Charles Stone carried the mails on horseback. A postman made the trip in 1810 once a week from east to west, while another came in from the north every seven days. The salary of the postmaster at that time was $60 a year.

About the year 1795 to 1796 a postoffice was established at this point, Joshua Whitney being instrumental in securing this service and being appointed to serve as the first postmaster. One of his first public acts was to contract for transportation of the mails from Catskill to Binghamton, Mr Whitney's own home served for an office up to the year 1800, at which time Oringh Stoddard succeeded Mr. Whitney, the office being transferred to a point some five miles down the Susquehanna river, in the township of Union. The removal of the postoffice from Chenango Point caused no little inconvenience to the people of the village and in 1802 an office was re-established in the village, with William Woodruff as postmaster. Mr. Woodruff held the office for six years when Judge Robert Monell was appointed to succeed Mr. Woodruff, the business being removed to Water Street, where in the Stuart House the Judge maintained his office.

We shall be interested in tracing the succession of postmasters during those early days. They were, succeeding Judge Monell, Judge McKinney, Zenas Pratt, John C. Swain, Virgil Whitney, about 1823, holding the position until 1836, when Dr Tracy Robinson was appointed. In May 1830, the name of the office was changed to Binghamton.

Hon. Stephen C. Millard, Member of Congress for this district, in 1887 was instrumental in procuring an appropriation of $150,000 for a federal building for Binghamton. A site was procured on Wall street, and the building erected in 1891, the post office moving into it in March of that year, when Colonel W. Dunn was postmaster.

EARLY STAGE LINES

From "BINGHAMTON AND BROOME COUNTY NEW YORK A HISTORY" by William F Seward, 1924.

In 1816, a stage coach began to make a round trip weekly from Newburgh to Owego. The proprietor of that line, a man named Teter, drove a two-horse team, carrying the mail both ways. Two years later these facilities were extended to take in Ithaca, tri-weekly trips being made. The name of Augustus Morgan deserves mention in this connection, since he had much to do with making this form of traveling as effective as possible. Major Morgan operated lines from Newburgh to Binghamton, thence to Ithaca, from Jersey City to Owego, and from Catskill to Geneva.

Still other stage routes were opened up, all radiating from Chenango Point. A man named Willoughby operated a line to Oxford. George Munsell took over the business a few years after it was established and pushed it as far north as Utica. Munsell drove a four-horse team and carried mail and passengers. A stage route also was projected to Montrose on the south, and a number of minor lines were owned and operated to outlying towns and cities.

The coming and going of the stage was an event of the highest importance to dwellers in Chenango Point, which we should from henceforth speak of as Binghamton, for the first-named title gradually sloughed off and was used no more. But the stage coach served its day and passed away, giving place to the railroad and the canal.

POSTAL SERVICE BAR CODE

In the February 8, 1982 issue of US News and World Report, an article states that the Post Office will start using a bar code (similar to that used in Super Markets) on letters late this year. Thick lines will show destination. Optical- scanning machines will speed-read the coded letters. The current rate of sorting mail at 1800 pieces an hour will be increased to 10,000 per hour. In fiscal year 1981, the Post Office handled 110 billion cards, letters and packages.
